KIX opens women-only break room in ramp area

Kansai Airports is pleased to announce the opening of a dedicated break room for female employees in the ramp area (restricted area) of Kansai International Airport (KIX).

This initiative marks the first of its kind within the ramp area of KIX. In response to the increasing number of female employees working in the ramp area in recent years, the new facility aims to offer a comfortable environment where women can take breaks with peace of mind. Furthermore, by improving working conditions, the initiative is expected to support recruitment efforts of airport-based businesses.

Looking ahead to the further growth in aviation traffic, Kansai Airports Group will continue to strengthen collaboration with operators and partner businesses, respond flexibly to changing circumstances, and actively advance both recruitment and talent development.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport ("KIX") and Osaka Itami Airport ("ITAMI") from New Kansai International Airport Company ("NKIAC") and has been operating the two airports since 1 April 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports' wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport ("KOBE") from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on 1 April 2018.

Under the concept of "One Kansai Airports Group", Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
