KOBE Terminal 2 now open with first international charter flights!

Kansai Airports Kobe is pleased to announce the opening of Terminal 2 at Kobe Airport. On April 18, international charter flights departed from and arrived at Kobe Airport for the first time.

To commemorate this occasion, Representative Director CEO Yoshiyuki Yamaya and Representative Director Co-CEO Benoit Rulleau of Kansai Airports Kobe attended the opening ceremony along with other airport stakeholders.

On the day of the opening, inbound passengers arriving in Kobe were greeted with a welcome banner and received commemorative gifts.

Kansai Airports Group will continue to meet the growing demand for air travel and create new travel experiences through close cooperation with stakeholders, working together across the three airports in Kansai.

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai Itami Airport ("KIX") and Osaka International Airport ("ITAMI") from New Kansai International Airport Company ("NKIAC") and has been operating the two airports since April 1, 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports' wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport ("KOBE") from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on April 1, 2018.

Under the concept of "One Kansai Airports Group", Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
