“SOUVENIR Kobe Tabinikki” Opens at Kobe Airport Terminal 2 - Showcasing the charms of Kobe in the boarding lounge -

Kansai Airports Group is pleased to announce that “SOUVENIR Kobe Tabinikki” will open in Kobe Airport Terminal 2 on 17 April 2026.

Terminal 2 began operations in April 2025 and currently serves international charter flights. This new souvenir shop is built around the concept of “a space where customers can encounter special items that recall their journey and enrich their memories with the unique charm of Kobe.” The shop offers a wide selection of products, with a particular focus on Kobe confectionery, in addition to classic specialties from the Kobe and Kansai region. It also offers a carefully curated assortment of popular items from across Japan that are especially popular with international customers, providing an enjoyable shopping experience for both domestic and international travelers.

Kansai Airports Group will continue to enhance convenience and create new attractions at the airports, while providing a convenient and comfortable airport experience for customers and local communities.

Shaping a New Journey

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka Itami Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since 1 April 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBE”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on 1 April 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
