AirAsia Malaysia launches new KIX-Kaohsiung-Kuala Lumpur route

Kansai Airports is pleased to announce that AirAsia Malaysia (AK) will launch a new route connecting Kansai (KIX), Kaohsiung (KHH), and Kuala Lumpur (KUL), starting on Monday, 15 June 2026. AirAsia Malaysia is an airline based in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, and this marks the airline's first-ever service to Kansai International Airport. The new route is expected to meet growing travel demand between Japan and Taiwan. It will also further enhance connectivity between Kansai and Kuala Lumpur, driving increased demand for both leisure and business travel.

Kansai Airports Group remains committed to expanding its air network, enhancing passenger convenience, and creating comfortable and enjoyable travel experiences for our customers.

Shaping a New Journey

Kansai Airports was established by a consortium made up of VINCI Airports and ORIX Corporation as its core members. Kansai Airports took over the operations of Kansai International Airport (“KIX”) and Osaka Itami Airport (“ITAMI”) from New Kansai International Airport Company (“NKIAC”) and has been operating the two airports since 1 April 2016.

Kansai Airports Kobe, Kansai Airports’ wholly-owned subsidiary, took over the operations of Kobe Airport (“KOBÉ”) from Kobe City and started its business as an operating company on 1 April 2018.

Under the concept of “One Kansai Airports Group”, Kansai Airports group strives to continuously improve its services for all airport guests through appropriate investments and efficient operations, with safety and security being the top priority. Kansai Airports group aims to maximize the potential of the three airports, for the benefit of the communities they serve.
